

March 9, 2011, Daily News

Wednesday, 09 March 2011

Last Updated Wednesday, 09 March 2011

Are US customers deserting Pay TV, or are they being pushed?

TelecomTV

There's an argument from cable companies that suggests the reason why so many of them are losing basic video subscribers is because people prefer to receive satellite or IPTV services. In Q4 of 2010, the four largest public cablecos in the US – Comcast ...

IPTV Set Top Box enables Android owners to download new apps

Mobiletor.com

Keeping this in mind, IN recently announced its IPTV Set Top Box with Google's Android platform version 2.2 for mobile phone users. Integrated with Android 2.2 operating system, the handy solution enables Android users to download the most advanced ...

TV3 deploys enhanced IPTV

Rapid tv news

TV3, Spain's Catalan public broadcasting channel, has selected Anevia to supply it with IPTV gateways for use within its broadcasting facilities over IP networks. TV3 is the main Catalan-language TV channel owned by the Televisió de Catalunya (TVC) ... Mongolia's Univision expands IPTV channel lineup

IPTV News

Mongolian operator Univision has signed a multi-year agreement with Turner Broadcasting System Asia Pacific under which some of the latter's premium channels will be added to its IPTV service, the country's first. The channels being added are CNN ...

Lord Sugar joins YouView IPTV platform

Silicon.com

By Shelley Portet, 9 March 2011 13:14 IPTV joint venture YouView has unveiled Lord Alan Sugar as its new non-executive chairman, with immediate effect. Lord Sugar replaces Kip Meek, who worked at telecoms watchdog Ofcom and chaired advisory body the ...

IN Media Announces Development of Android 2.2 Touch Screen Kiosks Based on ...

PR Newswire (press release)

(Pink Sheets: IMDC) today announced the planned launch of its new interactive High Definition Kiosk based upon their IPTV technology. These Google Android 2.2 based kiosks have bar code and credit card scanners, touch screen interface, browser support, ...

"We are still at the beginning of the growth stage for IPTV in China"

IPTV News

We speak to Bobby Lee, CTO of China's BestTV, a new media company based in Shanghai which operates one of the country's most successful IPTV services. At what point in the growth curve do you believe the Chinese IPTV market currently stands? ...

Decorah featured on IPTV programs

Decorah Journal

IPTV film crew spent an entire day in Decorah in November capturing Decorah's new Trout Run Trail, the unique artwork along the trail and the mountain biking systems near Dunning Springs, Ice Cave and Palisades Park. Locals also were interviewed ...

Microsoft Xbox and Mediaroom IPTV to meet in Orapa

ZDNet (blog)

The latest: Orapa — a Mediaroom IPTV/Xbox/Kinect mash-up. Mary Jo Foley has covered the tech industry for 25 years for a variety of publications, including ZDNet, eWeek and Baseline. She has kept close tabs on Microsoft strategy, products and ...