May 11, 2011, Daily News

Wednesday, 11 May 2011
Last Updated Wednesday, 11 May 2011

Telekom Austria doubles IPTV customer base
Rapid tv news
Austria's national telco Telekom Austria has considerably increased the number of customers of the IPTV platform aonTV on its ADSL broadband network. By 31 March 2011, more than 165000 households subscribed to the offer - a growth by nearly 50% ...

Buzz dev signs with IPTV service
CasualGaming.biz
UK developer Relentless Software is the latest studio to partner with TV games specialists PlayJam. The team behind the popular Buzz! quiz series will be able to develop social games for PlayJam's aggregated games portal, which launches on Samsung and ...

Fetch TV signs up four of top six ISPs

The Australian
ISP Internode will offer IPTV product Fetch TV to its 200000 broadband customers from today, a year after it said it would take the Fetch service. The announcement coincides with a major upgrade that will make Fetch TV's content easier for viewers to ...

Malayalam IPTV Channel Launched for Expatriates
Daijiworld.com
Kochi, May 11 (IANS) BVJS Communications Wednesday announced the launch of Malayalam IPTV (Internet Protocol Television) for non-resident Keralites (NRKs). The new IPTV will distribute most of the Malayalam channels from Kerala through the largest and ...

New Panasonic TVs focus on 3D and IPTV video-on-demand
PC World Magazine
Panasonic's new televisions have a focus on 3D picture performance and new IPTV features including direct streaming of ABC iView and Yahoo!7's PLUS7 catch-up digital TV services. Panasonic's television range also includes its first 3D LED TV, ...

Border States Electric and Mariner Join Forces to Improve IPTV Service ...
SunHerald.com
By leveraging this technical standard, xVu is able to proactively monitor the performance of IPTV set top boxes incorporating TR-069. “Mariner is extremely pleased to establish a partnering relationship with BSE. With a vast network of clients across ...

Verimatrix's VCAS Addresses Security Challenges in IPTV
TMC Net
"Entering the IPTV (News - Alert) market is a major initiative for us and we wanted a partner that not only understood the particular security challenges that exist on IP networks, but also had experience with distributed wholesale models," said ... BreakingPoint Introduces Multicast Test Lab, Simulating Tens of Thousands of ...
Marketwire (press release)
Multicast systems are relied upon to deliver video, voice and data for IPTV, financial exchanges, military communications and other multimedia content delivery networks. The new BreakingPoint Multicast Test Lab quickly simulates tens of thousands of ... Telekom Austria reports mixed Q1
IPTV News
Telekom Austria had reached over 165000 subscribers for its IPTV service 'aonTV' in the first quarter of 2011, up from 151000 customers at the end of 2010. Revenues from its fixed broadband, IPTV and other fixed line solutions and services reached ... URC Introduces My Favorite Remote
Business Wire (press release)
“My Favorite Remote takes users a step further by making sense of the hundreds of channels available through cable, IPTV and satellite providers. It's never been easier to get to the channel, and the shows, that you want to watch, as quickly and ... Malayalam IPTV launched in the US
Gulf Times

By Ashraf Padanna/Kochi The US-based BVJS Communications has launched Malayalam Television USA, the first Malayalam IPTV (Internet Protocol Television) for expatriates from Kerala. The IPTV distributes most of the Malayalam channels from Kerala through ... FetchTV now available to Internode customers in either Lite or Full versions Good Gear Guide
Internode has partnered with FetchTV to provide its customers with a comprehensive IPTV offering. in a busy week for FetchTV, the deal was announced not long after FetchTV also announced that it would partner with Optus in the second half of 2011, ...