

March 23, 2012, Daily News

Friday, 23 March 2012

Last Updated Friday, 23 March 2012

IP&TV World Forum, Day 3: Multiscreen Mania

TechNewsWorld

Are IPTV providers going to spend the money on the box to match consumer expectations -- and if not, who will? A continuing theme here is who's paying for what? A quality-of-service blame game we've historically seen at the ISP level doesn't look like ...

Football rules punt Oz IPTV into touch

Register

By Simon Sharwood, APAC Editor • Get more from this author Australia's nascent IPTV industry won't be able to win business with the entertainment industry's time honoured practice of paying outrageous prices for exclusive rights to broadcast live sport, ...

iiNet: Foxtel + Austar Will Kill IPTV

SmartHouse

By Oonagh Reidy | Friday | 23/03/2012 That's according to iiNet regulatory chief who is fearing the $2bn merger between Foxtel and Austar will spell the death knell for IPTV. In a submission to the competition watchdog, the ACCC, Steve Dalby said his ...

IPTV television personality visits the Scott County Library System

Quad-Cities Online

Today is Friday, March 23, the 83rd day of 2012. There are 283 days left in the year. 1862 -- 150 years ago: George Mixer has declined to be member of the board of education. He writes "I stated to Mr. Harper as soon as I saw his name announced that I ...

New Country Cutovers Pushed 2011 Broadband Growth

Communications Technology

Broadband and IPTV growth spiked to a high in 2011, with rates higher than at any time in the last five years, according to year-end figures published by the Broadband Forum, a nonprofit industry organization focused on engineering smarter and faster ...

UNI President Defends Massive Budget Cuts on IPTV

WOI

By Katie Eastman The president of University of Northern Iowa, Ben Allen defended massive cuts to academic programs Friday night in an interview on Iowa Public Television's Iowa Press. "We had to take action to do two things," Allen said.

UKTV Signs Its First Ever IPTV Deal With BT Vision

HDTV Test

By Jonathan Sutton • Friday, 23 March 2012, 4:21 pm GMT UKTV, Britain's leading branded multichannel broadcaster, announced this week that it has signed its first ever IPTV (internet protocol television) deal. This comes in the form of a three-year ...