

July 1, 2012, Daily News

Sunday, 01 July 2012

Last Updated Sunday, 01 July 2012

Roku adds international channel streaming via Dishworld

Rapid tv news

Dishworld IPTV has inked a deal with Roku, maker of a set-top box over-the-top (OTT) player, to bring international content to the United States, including feeds from ...

Humax, Saudi Telecom Company, JT Group join Open IPTV Forum

AME Info

The Open IPTV Forum is pleased to welcome three new members - Humax, STC (Saudi Telecom) and JT Group (Jersey Telecom) - who will be ...

Press Release: Humax, Saudi Telecom Company, JT Group join ...

MEED (subscription) (press release)

The Open IPTV Forum is pleased to welcome three new members - Humax, STC (Saudi Telecom) and JT Group (Jersey Telecom) - who will be participating in ...

MPEG Industry Forum shuts down

Broadcast Engineering (blog)

"By the end of this month all remaining assets will be put into the hands of the Open IPTV Forum where you can access these through the online site." The forum began in June 2000 at a time of great fragmentation in the video industry.

Maxis signs strategic partnerships to deliver IPTV in Malaysia

Rapid tv news

Communications service provider Maxis has signed new strategic partnerships with 14 content providers, to deliver IPTV in Malaysia. The content partnerships will enable Maxis to deliver on-demand movies and series, including high definition and 3D ...

YouView on again with 'launch event' set for next week

FierceIPTV

Britain's on-again, off-again YouView IPTV service is apparently on-again, according to multiple reports. Believe it or not--and if you've read any previous reports you might have a hard time--it could even be ready in time for the Olympics later in ...

YouView sets launch date; plans for linear streaming

Broadcast

Live TV will initially only be available from existing Freeview channels over DTT before phase two allows content providers to stream linear channels via IPTV. The decision means pay-TV broadcasters and niche content providers will be limited to ..

IPTV, satellite ready to dominate global pay-TV business

FierceIPTV

Good old cable TV continues to be the leading way in which consumers worldwide get their pay-TV services, but its reign at the top may be nearing an end, according to an Infonetics Research report forecasting and analyzing telco IPTV, cable video and ...