

July 28, 2012, Daily News

Saturday, 28 July 2012

Last Updated Saturday, 28 July 2012

UTStarcom divests 'non-strategic' IPTV equipment business

FierceIPTV

UTStarcom (Nasdaq: UTSI) is shedding its IPTV equipment business, turning it into a privately held standalone company as "a means of effectively redeploying capital to support higher return opportunities, particularly in the value-added services area ...

UTStarcom Announces Strategic Initiatives

Sacramento Bee

Company to Focus on Services and Divest IPTV Business -, - Former Board Member Mr. William Wong to Become Chief Executive Officer -, - Company Expects Second Quarter Results to be in Line with Internal Expectations -, . By UTStarcom Holdings Corp.

UTStarcom Announces Strategic Initiatives

Sacramento Bee

Company to Focus on Services and Divest IPTV Business -, - Former Board Member Mr. ... The divestiture of the Company's IPTV equipment business which will ...

UTStarcom to divest IPTV ops, push media support services

Telecompaper (subscription)

IP networking products provider UTStarcom Holdings has announced a number of strategic initiatives aimed at generating growth, making the company more ...

Economist sees 'rising likelihood' of drought-related recession

Sioux City Journal

Iowa Press can be seen at 8:30 a.m. Saturday on IPTV World and at noon Sunday on IPTV. It is available online at www.iptv.org. Inside. A burn ban has been ...

Amino bounces back to profit

Business Weekly

Year-on-year the specialist in digital entertainment solutions for IPTV, Internet TV and in-home multimedia distribution, has gone from a loss of £0.4m in H1 2011 to an operating profit of £0.2m this time. Gross profit was up 19 per cent to £7.1m and ...

New orders and lower specs help Amino

Broadband TV News

The Cambridge set-top and IPTV specialist recorded £20.1 million in first half revenues, a 12% improvement. Customers in the Netherlands increased sales by £3.7 million, while Telecom Italia's commitment drew a further £1.3 million.