

Nov. 11, 2012, Daily News

Sunday, 11 November 2012

Last Updated Sunday, 11 November 2012

BT Vision signs up British Eurosport

IPTV News

UK telco BT has signed yet another sports deal for its IPTV service 'BT Vision' – this time with British Eurosport, home of major European and ...

Wireless, Net, TV biz pushes up MTS profit

Winnipeg Free Press

"We continue to generate growth in our strategic lines of business including wireless data, IPTV, high-speed Internet and converged IP (services)," chief financial officer Wayne Demkey told a conference call. "The quarter-over-quarter revenue decrease is ...

MTS launches their fastest high-speed Internet plans yet

Stockhouse

The company's suite of products and services include the latest in wireless technology, high-speed Internet, an award-winning IPTV service, voice services, home security, and an extensive range of business solutions. A technology leader, MTS operates ...

Copaco reveals 4th launch date for IPTV service

TeleGeography-Nov 7, 2012

Paraguayan telecoms operator Compania Paraguaya de Comunicaciones (Copaco) is expected to launch its long-delayed IPTV service on a commercial basis ...

IPTV Subscribers Top Record 6 Million in Korea

The Chosun Ilbo

More Koreans are watching TV through Internet-based services, with the number of subscribers to Internet Protocol TV now surpassing a record 6 million.

CenturyLink to 'soft launch' Prism TV in Phoenix next year

FierceIPTV

CenturyLink (NYSE: CTL) is ready to move its Prism TV IPTV service into Phoenix, CEO-President Glenn Post said during a third quarter earnings ...

Bell Aliant says fibre optic network bringing in customers, helping revenues

CanadianBusiness.com

The Halifax-based telecom now has 107,000 IPTV customers and the IPTV revenue grew by $10 million to $21.4 million, the largest area of revenue growth in the quarter. Internet revenue in the quarter increased nearly $10 million to $132 million. Bell Aliant ...