

July 10, 2013, Daily News

Wednesday, 10 July 2013

Last Updated Thursday, 11 July 2013

Amino enhances multiscreen features of Aminet IPTV range

Telecompaper (subscription)

Set-top box developer Amino Communications has added a range of enhanced multiscreen features to its Aminet IPTV product range, which is certified for Mineva's iTVFusion 5 video service management platform. The enhanced platform enables operators to ...

Minerva certifies Amino IPTV STB range

Rapid tv news

Amino Communications has added enhanced multiscreen capability to its Aminet IPTV STB range when running on key partner Minerva's iTVFusion 5 video service management platform. Amino is one of Minerva's longest standing partners, the two working ...

Amino enhances multiscreen capability

Business Weekly

Amino Communications, a leader in IPTV technology, has launched a range of enhanced multiscreen capabilities for its Aminet IPTV product range when running on key partner Mineva's iTVFusion 5 video service management platform. The Cambridge UK ...

Russia's TTC rows back on IPTV rollout

DigitalTVEurope.net

Russian service provider TransTeleCom (TTC) is scaling back plans to launch IPTV services in small and medium-sized towns and cities, citing a lack of purchasing power by inhabitants to acquire set-top boxes. TTC head of access networks Svetlana ...

Marc Dorcel Comes Out with New Erotic Channel

World Screen

Erotica TV is available for cable, satellite, IPTV and hotels in Europe. Targeted at both male and female viewers, it is already offered in Turkey through D.SMART's Xtra package. The 24/7 network will air sexy reports and series, as well as 10 to 15 ...

College IPTV Service Makes Grade

Light Reading

Tivli, an IPTV start-up that serves several major U.S. universities, is $6.3 million richer today, thanks in part to funding from Home Box Office Inc. (HBO) and Mark Cuban's Radical Investments. The Boston-based company closed a Series A financing ...

IPTV entrants win over subscribers from pay TV providers

Indiantelevision.com

MUMBAI: New IPTV entrants are winning over subscribers from established pay-TV providers, particularly in Brazil and Russia, says Infonetics Research. Infonetics Research released excerpts from its new Pay TV Subscriber Database, which tracks the ..

