

July 13, 2013, Daily News

Saturday, 13 July 2013

Last Updated Saturday, 13 July 2013

STB market continues to thrive, expected to peak in 2015

Indiantelevision.com

Global shipments of STBs used for cable, satellite, terrestrial and IPTV digital TV services are predicted to reach 269 million units this year, which is eight per cent higher than last year. This is expected to grow another six per cent, to 286

...

ZappoTV: "The largest wave of disruption is still to come for the broadcast ...

IPTV News

Jan van Ottele, co-founder of ZappoTV, on why TV is a difficult industry to disrupt, and whether over-the-top delivery can coexist with broadcast technologies. Jan will be speaking at the OTTtv World Summit taking place in London on 19-22 November 2013.

Investment in electronic media to rise to Rs. 41 billion by 2015

Associated Press of Pakistan

Multichannel Multipoint Distribution System (MMDS)/ Wireless Broadband (WiBro) will get investment of Rs. 1.5 billion, Internet Protocol Television (IPTV) Rs. 1.5 billion and Interactive Internet TV Rs. one billion. Satellite Radio and Direct To Home ...

Swordfish Financial discusses the iPoint Global Projections

MarketWatch

Digital TV Latin America 2013 IPTV to climb from fewer Than 1 Million Subscribers in 2012 to Nearly 6 Million By 2018. After a slow start, digital TV penetration is about to rocket in Latin America - from less than a third of homes at end of 2012 to ...

Swordfish Financial discusses the iPoint Global Projections

Baystreet.ca

On Monday June 8, 2013 SWRF announced the addition of its new office in Bogota, Colombia. This new office is now part of an ongoing growing campaign to add iPoint to growing markets. IPTV is taking off in Latin America, and Colombia is leading the way, ...

Flip Media: "We have an opportunity to show the potential of connected TV"

IPTV News

Yousef Tuqan Tuqan, CEO of Dubai-based interactive advertising agency Flip Media, on the current state of connected TV in the MEA region, and how he plans to take advantage of ongoing changes in this space. Yousef will be speaking at the TV Connect ...

Russia's KartinaTV picks Amino STBs

IPTV News

Russian online video service provider KartinaTV has chosen HD set-top boxes from UK firm Amino for the next stage of its rollout plans, focusing initially on Russian-speaking audiences in Europe but eventually expanding to a global audience. The ...

Invitel brings IPTV to 100000 more households

Telecompaper (subscription)

Hungarian operator Invitel increased its IPTV platform's coverage to an additional 100,000 households. At present, Invitel's IPTV services are available to more than 500,000 households. Besides access to a number of TV channels, IPTV customers are ...

IPTV upstarts seeing global success

Advanced Television

New IPTV entrants are winning over subscribers from established pay-TV providers, particularly in Brazil and Russia, says Infonetics Research. The research points to Russia's Rostelecom, Brazil's GVT and Dutch provider KPN as notable new players that ...