

April 10, 2014, Daily News

Thursday, 10 April 2014

Last Updated Friday, 11 April 2014

The Developed Asia-Pacific telecoms market: trends and forecasts ...

DigitalJournal.com

Growth in handset data, fixed broadband and IPTV revenue in the developed Asia&ndash;Pacific region will result in an increase in overall telecoms retail revenue from ...

Canal+ launches new mobile app

TBI Vision

Canalplay is available without the need for a subscription to Canal+ or Canalsat, for EUR6.99 on mobiles and tablets, and &euro;9.99 on TVs connected via IPTV ...

Ericsson wins 2014 NAB Innovation Award

IPTV News

Ericsson has been awarded the NAB Technology Innovation Award, for its pioneering work in Ultra High Definition TV (UHDTV) 4K. The award was formally ...

New WW1 collection for BBC iPlayer

IPTV News

As part of its World War One Season the BBC has today announced a new commission exclusively for BBC iPlayer, called WW1 UNCUT. The collection will see ...

Sky Sports awarded new Masters golf agreement

IPTV News

Sky Sports will continue to show live coverage of the Masters from Augusta National thanks to a new multi-year agreement announced today. The deal means ...

Ten caught in the perfect storm

The Australian

... have persisted since the financial crisis and the continuing fragmentation of audiences caused by pay-TV, digital channels and the growing impact of IPTV.

Which Wireless Network Is Best for You?

E-Commerce Times

They also offer telephone, high-speed Internet and television services, with their IPTV-like Uverse and FiOS. They are both heavily into other areas, too -- like ...