

May 28, 2014, Daily News

Wednesday, 28 May 2014

Last Updated Wednesday, 28 May 2014

Alcatel-Lucent to power 1Gbps FTTH installation

Rapid tv news-17 hours ago

... a 1Gbps network to communities in rural north-eastern Oklahoma, to support IPTV, voice and broadband. Powered by Alcatel-Lucent's gigabit passive optical ...

12 months late, Chromecast finally hits Australia

Delimiter

Foxtel has also announced that its Presto IPTV/movies service will be available on Chromecast from July, while IPTV rival Quickflix has also announced that ...

Pay-TV revenue growth peaks

Rapid tv news

... fall to $80.3 billion in 2020. However, cable operators will gain extra revenues by converting subscribers to bundles. IPTV are expected to rise by $2.5 billion.

BBC details features for iPlayer app update on Windows Phone 8

IPTV News

Almost exactly a year ago since the BBC introduced iPlayer to Windows Phone 8 devices for the first time, today the BBC have announced a major update to the ...

National Geographic, Nat Geo Wild launch on Orange France

Rapid tv news-10 hours ago

The channels are available to more than nine million and eight million Orange IPTV-based pay-TV subscribers respectively in both standard definition (SD) and ...

blinkbox app ready for Xbox One (Chromecast coming soon)

IPTV News

blinkbox movies & TV has launched a dedicated app for the Xbox One console, giving even more homes easy access to the latest blockbuster movies and top ...

Foxtel's Presto to launch on Google Chromecast

IPTV News

Presto, Australia's premier entertainment streaming service, today signaled its move into Australian living rooms with upcoming availability on Google ...