

Nov 25, 2014, Daily News

Tuesday, 25 November 2014

Last Updated Wednesday, 26 November 2014

Fujitsu: You Can Do A Lot With 2Mbps

TechWeekEurope UK

“I don't want to be negative about people who want to watch IPTV but what I'm saying is it's a different problem of not being able to watch IPTV than not being ...

HKTV launches OTT platform for Hong Kong

IPTV News

Hong Kong Television Network Limited (HKTV) has launched its new OTT platform, a one-stop shop solution consolidating entertainment, online shopping and ...

4K streaming to launch on Samsung UHD TVs

IPTV News

Entertainment tech specialists NanoTech Entertainment has signed an agreement with Samsung to launch a 4K streaming service on the latter's UHD TVs.

European premium OTT to experience rapid growth

IPTV News

Vindicia and Ooyala have announced the results of a qualitative pan-European study that looks at the current premium service OTT market and its projected ...

Vodafone to roll out quadruple play in Germany

Broadband TV News

The TV offering from Kabel Deutschland can be added from €10 per month; VDSL customers receive IPTV service Vodafone TV instead. Vodafone All-in-One ...

52% of BitTorrent users buy films monthly

IPTV News

BitTorrent has revealed the results of an depth survey of 2,500 BitTorrent users; asking them about content, creativity, and the role of music and film in their daily ...

SMG subsidiaries join to create Chinese Internet, TV giant

Rapid tv news

BesTV already covers more than 20 provinces and cities in Mainland China and South East Asia with a new media business portfolio including IPTV, Internet TV, ...