

Feb. 4, 2015, Daily News

Wednesday, 04 February 2015

Last Updated Thursday, 05 February 2015

IPTV market set for double-digit growth

Rapid tv news

The firm said that the IPTV market lately has also witnessed an increased number of IPTV subscribers, mainly fuelled by demand for enhanced user viewing ...

KPN to Cut More Jobs After Profits Shrink

Light Reading

Thanks partly to the take-up of IPTV services, average monthly revenue per fixed-line residential customer rose from €43 ($49) to €44 ($50) over the same ...

4 Reasons to Believe in AT&T Stock

Investorplace.com

U-verse, a mix of IPTV, IP phone and internet broadband, is also expected to grow organically to boot. These acquisitions and others — including the purchase ...

Foxtel pitches unlimited Presto as streaming war heats up

Computerworld Australia

Australian analysts expressed mixed views on the impact that deals like this will on the imminent subscription IPTV war that includes Presto, Netflix, Quickflix and ...

Chinese IPTV company inks 3 year broadcast deal with BAFTA

Indiantelelevision.com

MUMBAI: The British Academy of Film and Television Arts (BAFTA) has inked a three year deal with Youku Tudou - China's leading internet television company.

Presto secures unmetered access

The Australian

Among its broadband competitors currently, some TPG broadbandADSL2+ bundles allow access to IPTV channels, including Al Jazeera and Bloomberg, and ...

Cisco and IBM to future-proof MCG in $45 million upgrade

ARNnet

It will also include best-of-breed Internet Protocol Television (IPTV) system to deliver digital content to high-definition displays throughout the MCG, displaying ...