

March. 17, 2015, Daily News

Tuesday, 17 March 2015

Last Updated Wednesday, 18 March 2015

Magyar Telekom reaches 450000 IPTV subs

Telecompaper (subscription)

Almost half of the Magyar Telekom's TV subscribers, that is 450,000 customers, so far subscribed for the Telekom IPTV service, equaling a 14 percent growth ...

Germany leads Ultra HD awareness in SES's annual sat survey

DigitalTVEurope.net

SES's satellites now reach 312 million homes globally, including 125 million satellite homes and 149 million cable homes, along with 38 million IPTV homes, ...

Huawei: How to become an OTT service provider

IPTV News

Over the top (OTT) video distribution refers to the delivery of video content over one or more carrier networks, as opposed to IPTV, which sees content delivered ...

Freesat adds new Sky channels Pick+1 and Challenge+1

IPTV News

UK free satellite TV service Freesat has added two new time-shift channels from Sky, Pick+1 and Challenge+1. Pick+1 guarantees viewers easy-to-watch telly ...

'Potential cord-cutters' rise to 7% in US

IPTV News

A new report from Parks Associates suggests that the number of households planning to cancel their pay-TV service (potential cord-cutters) has increased, ...

KPN reports record usage of Restart-TV

Broadband TV News

The Restart-Tv service allows KPN's IPTV customers to start watching a programme from the beginning when they tune in to the programme after it already ...

Sky invests heavily in OTT startup

IPTV News

Mainstream's platform provides powerful automation technology to enable content companies to launch OTT services across multiple platforms – such as Apple ...