

May 28, 2015, Daily News

Thursday, 28 May 2015

Last Updated Friday, 29 May 2015

TDS's 1 Gbps buildout plan to 25% of network drives users to higher ...

FierceTelecom

Customers that reside in markets where the 1 Gbps is available are still required to purchase the 1 Gbps service as part of a bundle that includes its IPTV service ...

UK: The Supreme Court Has Confirmed That Sky's Launch In The ...

Mondaq News Alerts (registration)

After reaching the Supreme Court the final appeal was unanimously dismissed and it was held that Sky's UK internet protocol television ("IPTV") service named ...

Telefónica targets 4K streaming, IPTV with 300Mbps fibre

Rapid tv news

Telefónica is offering customers of its fibre-to-the-home (FTTH) network in Spain the ability to subscribe to the highest speed in the country - 300Mb - thus ...

Amino to work with Argentine cooperatives in IPTV rollout

Telecompaper (subscription)

Global IPTV STB company Amino Technologies has reached a deal with Argentine cooperative IPTV operators' association Catel to deploy its devices in key ...

Nick Thomas: YouTube, transactions, and 'Jennifer Aniston's jumper'

IPTV News

Last week saw YouTube announce the launch of TrueView, which lets advertisers showcase product details and images – and gives viewers the ability to click ...

Ofcom: tablets in half of UK homes

IPTV News

The tablet computer has established itself as a must-have device in just five years with more than half of UK homes now owning one, according to national ...

Android open source pays off for Swisscom as TV 2.0 IPTV service ...

Videonet

Swisscom has signed 500,000 customers onto its Swisscom TV 2.0 IPTV platform since April 2014 when the company introduced its next-generation offer based ...