

Sept. 8, 2016, Daily News

Thursday, 08 September 2016

FCC's Annual Fee Hike Irks Satellite TV Providers

Zacks.com

Thus, many of these pay-TV companies are trying to expand their IPTV presence ... However, unlike IPTV, these OTT services are not regulated by the FCC and ...

Tv2u launches real-time analytics and content aggregation for OTT ...

Videonet-12 hours ago

Tv2u, which provides cloud-based interactive OTT/IPTV services, is unveiling its new real-time analytics service and content aggregation engine at IBC.

Cable TV operators face market uncertainty

Korea Times

With IPTV gaining popularity, mobile carriers here have released bundled products combining their telecom and IPTV services, dealing a blow to cable TV ...

3SS launches new multiscreen user interface

Broadband TV News

At the core of the 3Ready multiscreen user interface solution is a 'template' front-end 3SS has pre-engineered to meet the requirements of today's IPTV and OTT ...

Digital TV grows in Germany, but HD faces obstacle

Broadband TV News

... of TV households respectively, followed by DTT (9%) and IPTV (6.2%). The amount of TV households watching HD channels, grew from 48.1% to 53.1% in the ...

Foxtel's flexible Play pricing takes aim at SVOD competition

Rapid TV News

Subscribers to IPTV service Foxtel Play will be offered five low-cost entry-level tiers to better match subscription video-on-demand (SVOD) rivals, the Australian ...

Foxtel ramps up its IPTV offering in competition with Netflix

Delimiter

news Foxtel has revamped its approach to package pricing for its IP-delivered subscription TV service, Foxtel Play, presumably aiming to lower the cost bar for ...