

April 13 2017, Daily News

Thursday, 13 April 2017

Irdeto, Premier League shut down Spain-based illegal streams

Telecompaper (subscription)

... Spanish national police and Interpol shut down a Spain-based operation that was offering illegal IPTV streams. In an investigation dubbed Operation Casper, ” ...

Premier League Takes the Pitch in Fight against Pirated Streams

The National Law Review

In another recent ruling, several facilitators of illegal streams to pubs and suppliers of pre-loaded IPTV boxes were hit with a series of fines totaling £360,000.

On The NAB Exhibit Floor: Video Clarity

TV News Check-1 hour ago

... an addition to AWS EC2 cloud subscription services, giving subscribers in broadcast, IPTV, and any other content-delivery scenarios licensable SaaS versions ...

The Business of Television

Broadcasting & Cable

The channel, which broadcasts 24-7 over satellite, cable, OTT, IPTV and DTTV (Digital Terrestrial Television) with debates and commentary on major national ...

Freenet TV expects 1 million customers by 2018

Broadband TV News

The IPTV platform waipu.tv launched at the end of September 2016 reached around 146,000 registered users on March 31, 2017 including around 23,000 ...

TF1 ready to pull FTA channels from SFR and Canal OTT

Advanced Television

French commercial media group TF1 threatens to withdraw its FTA channels from the OTT platforms of some French IPTV operators, with an ultimatum given to ...

?Jeff Kagan: Will GameStop Transform in Time?

Equities.com

Comcast (CMCSA) and Charter (CHTR) still lead the cable TV space, but the marketplace is shifting away from cable TV to IPTV and wireless TV. That is putting ...

Is Kodi going legit? DRM considered to combat piracy and ...

International Business Times UK

The popular open-source platform, used by millions to stream and side-load TV shows, movies and games on IPTV devices, has become notorious for enabling ...

