

July 27, 2017, Daily News

Thursday, 27 July 2017

Last Updated Thursday, 27 July 2017

Premier League wins anti-piracy court order

BBC News

It will allow the league to combat the illicit sale and use of devices such as pre-loaded IPTV and Kodi boxes. A similar order was obtained for the final two months ...

The Feature Phone that could change Indian Telecom

Technology Personalized

Meanwhile, the announcement regarding the roll out of fiber optic broadband means that IPTV would be Jio's preferred route of delivering TV content in urban ...

Rostelecom expands IPTV services in Altay

Telecompaper (subscription)

Russian national operator Rostelecom covered with its IPTV services 36 villages in the Altay region in the first half of this year. The services are available in a ...

VITEC to Showcase Field-Proven Military and Defense Video ...

Broadcasting & Cable

"VITEC's latest encoding solutions and IPTV management system are designed to allow military personnel to easily disseminate live feeds and recorded video ...

Espial launches IPTV software platform

Telecompaper (subscription)

Espial announced the availability of Elevate IPTV, software-as-a-service initially available for Arris set-top boxes. The software helps operators to introduce live, ...

Editor's Corner—AT&T's video/wireless bundling strategy bears fruit ...

FierceWireless

This includes those who have migrated from our IPTV service, which is something we intended. The number of wireless subscribers with DTV has increased by ...

KPN adds to TV base

DigitalTVEurope.net

Dutch telco KPN added 25,000 IPTV customers in the second quarter, along with 8,000 broadband customers and 9,000 post-pad voice customers.