

Aug.1, 2017, Daily News

Tuesday, 01 August 2017

Rostelecom expands IPTV services in Sakha

Telecompaper (subscription)

Russian national operator Rostelecom has expanded the coverage of its IPTV services in the Republic of Sakha to the town of Olyokminsk. More than 220 TV ...

This Cheaply Valued Asian Telco Stock Could Have 26% Upside

Barron's

We believe mobile market conditions have changed due to uncertainties over a tariff cut, while broadband and IPTV businesses are likely to post solid and ...

Telefónica reverses pay-TV sub decline

Advanced Television

The launch of new convergent packages on Movistar Plus is reversing the downward trend in subscribers to Telefónica's IPTV service. In the second quarter of ...

Gogo's Next Generation Inflight Modem Takes Flight

AviationPros.com

The new modem includes dual channels to simultaneously support internet traffic and broadcast IPTV. It also features faster and more sophisticated processing ...

Movistar to ring in the changes

Broadband TV News

Meanwhile, MultiAccess Hogar will be made available to the entire IPTV customer base, either over ADSL or fibre, from August 1. This will allow for the reception ...

Another Kodi Plugin Domain Is Now In The Hands Of A Law Firm

Gizmodo UK

However the plugin allows people to add playlists from other sources, and as such it was possible to use the plugin as a way to stream IPTV, which in turn can ...

Anti-piracy raids ramp up across UK as fully loaded Kodi box ...

International Business Times UK

Another study by YouGov also found that 4.9 million adults in the UK regularly use modified IPTV devices, as well as streaming apps on smartphones and tablets ...